

IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ARMY'S 238TH BIRTHDAY

The Army Profession

A Panel Discussion on Army leadership development, training and ethics.

The Association of the U.S. Army and the National Defense Industrial Association, Delaware Valley Chapter, are sponsoring a panel discussion on The Army Profession, chaired by Lt. Gen. David D. Halverson, Deputy Commanding General, U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command. Senior Army leaders, representing all components, will discuss their roles in stewardship of the profession, highlighting the concepts of professional competence, character, and commitment.

Panel Participants:

- LTG David D. Halverson, Deputy Commanding General, US Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC)
- CSM Daniel A. Dailey, Command Sergeant Major, TRADOC
- MG Wesley E. Craig, Jr., The Adjutant General, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
- BG Michaelene Ann Kloster, Commanding General, 98th Training Division, US Army Reserve

In their leadership positions, these senior Army leaders work to reinforce the bedrock of trust with the American People by providing military expertise, serving honorably, demonstrating a winning spirit and stewardship of the profession. Come hear their stories and thoughts as they consider the tough questions facing today's Army.

June 13th, 2013

3:30 PM-5:30 PM

Blank Rome LLP

One Logan Square

130 N. 18th Street

Philadelphia, PA 19103

Delaware Valley Chapter

Admission is free, but reservations are required. For information and reservations, contact Jim Donahue, President of the William Penn Chapter of AUSA, jadonahue@rcn.com